Court Management Section
Subject: Akayesu Appeal: Request for Mr. Pierre Prosper to maintain Akayesu
Objet: transcripts in his possession.

Thank you for your memo dated 30 September 1998 informing me that Mr. Pierre Prosper may be advising the OTP in the event of an Appeal in the Akayesu case, and that he will therefore be required to maintain copies of the Akayesu transcripts in his possession.

Kindly be informed that the decision as to what property of the UN a non-staff member can maintain after separation from the organisation, is a matter for the Personnel and Security Sections to handle. The Court Management Section will not release any documents not meant for the public to any non-staff member except with the authorisation of the Chamber.

Warm regards.

I. C. T. R. SENIOR LEGAL OFFICERS RECEIVED DATE: 30-9-98 ACTION:

Please be advised that in the event of an appeal in the matter of the Prosecutor v. Akayesu, Pierre-Richard Prosper may be advising the Office of the Prosecutor on various issues concerning the case. Therefore, Pierre will be required to maintain copies of the Akayesu transcripts in his possession.

Pierre-Richard Prosper has assured me that he will respect and be bound by the Trial Chambers order regarding witness protection in this matter. (Please see the attached memorandum).

All the best.
