- jeopardising of public traffic by dangerous activities or means, Article 183, Paragraph 1; and
- aggressive behaviour, Article 204, Paragraphs 1 and 2 adopted from the KZ of the RBiH /Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina/.

Because: On 31.03.1992, at around 20.00 hrs, they commenced realisation of the plan to set up barricades on all entrances, that is, exits from the town of Stolac, against the Croats, and conducted body searches and maltreated the Croats, turning them back from the places where they had set up the barricades – roadblocks, and not allowing the Croats neither to leave nor to enter the town.

Namely, the accused Alija RIZVANBEGOVIĆ, Mirsad MAHMUTĆEHAJIĆ, Mehmed DIZDAR, Ekrem PEKAZ, Smajo

ČERKEZ, Enes GUTOŠIĆ, Muho DIZDAR, Kemal BALAVAC, Halko BALAVAC and other influential Muslim leaders organised setting up of barricades on the roads against the Croatian people, especially against the Croatian leaders and more prominent and popular Croats. They previously planned everything so they could confront already much more organised Croats, who were preparing to confront the occupying Chetnik army and the so-called JNA /Yugoslav People's Army/.

Although in those months of crisis, since 20.09.1991 until 31.03.1992, the Croats tried to put up a joint defence of the entire area of Stolac Municipality together with the Muslims, and those relations were being built particularly by the leading people of the HDZ /Croatian Democratic Union/ policy, the aforementioned Muslim leadership spared no effort to disable the Croats in their intentions including those few Muslims who had recognised the intentions of the Serbo-Chetnik occupying army.

The purpose of the barricades was clear, to draw the Serbian political and military leadership's attention to the Stolac Muslims, and show the Muslims as loyal citizens, that is, as fighters for Yugoslavia, even at the cost of casualties among the Croatian and the Muslim people. To stop more and more organised Croats and buy time in order to weaken the Croatian defence, whereas the Muslims could get as ready as possible to welcome the occupying army "with their hands open" so that army could take over the area of Stolac Municipality as easy as possible. At the time of the barricades, in the period between around 20.00 hrs on 31.03 and 03.04.1992, the Muslim leadership led by Mehmed DIZDAR, the then Commander of Stolac PS /Police Station/ and his brother Muha, President of the SDA Alija RIZVANBEGOVIĆ and their loyal subjects Mirsad MAHMUTĆEHAJIĆ, Smajo ČERKEZ, Enes GUTOŠIĆ, Halko BALAVAC, Kemal BALAVAC and others, made all kinds of pressure and threatened Muslims from local communities who were manning the set up barricades in order for the barricades to remain there as long as possible. With the purpose of exerting strong pressure against the Muslim people and to turn them against the Croats, Mehmed DIZDAR led the operations and positioned only those Muslims at the barricade, who were at the time active reserve policemen of Stolac PS, and also engaged some of them from other RPS /reserve police stations/ (Crnići, Hodovo and Pješivac). All the actions at the time were led by him from Stolac PS.

For several days, the accused individuals and their leaders had taken control over the city and launched a specific "coup" by controlling the PS and the political life in the municipality, as they issued an order that Chief of Stolac PS Mr. Pero RAGUŽ could not enter the town, on which occasion he was physically assaulted and turned back from the barricades at Gorica in the morning hours on 01.04.1992, in addition the President of the Municipality and President of the HDZ could not at first leave the town between 31.03 and 01.04.1992 or enter the town in the morning hours of 01.04.1992. Namely, between 31.03 and 01.04.1992 they left the town using a secondary road via Vidovo Polje, through which they were taken by the then Commander of Crnići PS Boško BOŠKOVIĆ, but the following days they were not allowed to enter the town as well as other Croats.

During a kind of a local “coup” of its own kind, the barricades at Gorica were set up of the existing police anti-tank barriers including trailer trucks owned by the “Napredak” Company, which were driven to the barricades by Mirso ŠUKO accompanied by Mehmed DIZDAR, Ekrem PEKAZ and Mirsad MAHMUTĆEHAIĆ. The barricade at the Catholic Church in Zagrad in Stolac was set up of beams and “TAM” vehicles owned by Ševko BALAVAC from Stolac. Similar barricades were also set up at other places.

Apart from the vehicles and objects placed at the barricades, there were aforementioned armed Muslims, who worked in shifts, wearing mostly civilian clothes, while some wore uniforms of active and reserve police, as well as camouflage uniforms with “lilies” such as the one of Mirsad MAHMUTĆEHAIĆ. The telegrams that Mehmed DIZDAR sent from the PS to the then MUP /Ministry of Interior/ and their contents show that the barricades were organised against the Croats, and were also most probably agreed on a higher level of the Muslim leaders.
